Principle Article Here

The purpose of this newsletter is to provide information to your target audience - PARENTS. This newsletter can be designed to address the specific needs of special education students. The newsletter can be tailored to support and nurture students of a specific disability or to address the needs of the students in your class.

The Principle Article is the main article of your newsletter. The title and article should cover major news in your class. Dependent upon how often you decide to disseminate your newsletter, the article can cover past or future events. Principle topics might include:

- *The start of the school year
- *Introduction of classroom staff
- *Classroom/Teaching Goals
- *Classroom Practices
- *Field Trips/Special Visitors
- *Etc.

The titles and articles can be changed with the click of a mouse. If you click on the section in which you want to edit text, you simply need to highlight the section you want to change. You can delete the text and type what you desire. You can enlarge/decrease the text boxes as needed to accommodate the size of the article. The font/size can be changed easily as well.

Article Title Here

Type Text Here -

This space can be used for a secondary article that is important for families. This section can be used to highlight a student (or several students) and the good work they have done. The space can also highlight how special education students are following through with school-wide expectations.

Student Highlight

Insert Graphic Here

This section can be used to make parents aware of classroom needs like boxes of tissue, hand sanitizer or room parent services. You may also want to highlight some of the good work that goes on in the classroom. The section is also a good way to share how you have taught a certain (more difficult) skill in order to assure that parents are teaching a skill the same way the student initially began learning.

Service Provider News

This section can be used to allow a service provider to have input. They can be asked for teaching tips, support strategies, accommodations or modifications that are used to help the children in the classroom.

Research to Support Learning Development

This section can be used to share current research related to the disabilities that affect students in your classroom. The research should be current and might include how such research is being included in your teaching practice.

Insert Graphic Here

Positive quotes related to the specific disability/disabilities served can be inserted here.

Parent's Corner/Tech Tools

This section can be used to share parent tidbits. If there are any parents who desire to add to the newsletter, this space could be for them. Otherwise, technological aids that support learning can be shared here.

Upcoming Events

This space can be used to share/remind parents about upcoming events

- Field Trips
- Holidays
- School Closures, etc.
